

Water Systems Final Task: Lesson Activity

Class: _____

Group Members: _____

Topic: _____

Categories	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Knowledge of Lesson Content	The student(s) demonstrate limited knowledge of their water systems topic. The lesson is incomplete.	The students(s) demonstrate some knowledge of their water systems topic. They have no additional information other than the PowerPoint or other presentation	The students(s) demonstrate considerable knowledge of their water systems topic. They have notes and have other information to add than just the PowerPoint.	The students(s) demonstrate thorough knowledge of their water systems topic. They have detailed notes and do not just read their PowerPoint or other presentation.
Understanding of Lesson Content	The student(s) demonstrate poor understanding of content. (scientific concepts or ideas are not explained well or in own words).	The student(s) demonstrate satisfactory understanding of content. (scientific concepts or ideas are explained somewhat clearly and in own words).	The student(s) demonstrate a competent understanding of content. (scientific concepts or ideas are explained well and in own words.	The student(s) demonstrate superior understanding of content. (scientific concepts or ideas are explained in great detail and in own words).
Expression and Organization of Ideas	The student(s) express and organize their information with limited effectiveness .	The student(s) express and organize their information with some effectiveness.	The student(s) express and organize their information with considerable effectiveness.	The student(s) express and organize their information with a high degree of effectiveness.
Communication for Different Audiences (Peers) to Inform in Oral Visual and Written Forms (e.g. PowerPoint/Video)	The student(s) communicate to the desired audience with limited effectiveness (students are not engaged)	The student(s) communicate to the desired audience with some effectiveness (students are somewhat engaged)	The student(s) communicate to the desired audience with considerable effectiveness (students are engaged)	The student(s) communicate to the desired audience with a high degree of effectiveness (students are very engaged)

TOTAL: ____ 20 Marks